NOTE for Parents

- ✓ First and foremost, a pattern of proper sleep is extremely important. Encourage your child to do something relaxing like listening to music before he goes to bed.
- ✓ Exercise and sports are highly beneficial habits for your child to enhance his/her academic performance.
- ✓ Remain calm and try not to transfer your anxiety on to your child.
- ✓ Don't place unnecessary pressure on your child to gain certain marks.
- ✓ Observe how your child is dealing with his stress.
- ✓ Offer him help if he appears to be struggling. Active listening is enough to support him.

Tips for Students

- ✓ Leave all your fears outside and enter the examination room with free mind and confidence
- ✓ Prepare a time-table. Allot more time to tough subjects.
- ✓ Do not study at a stretch. Take a few minutes break in between.
- ✓ Do not study lying in bed. While studying, sit on a chair with your spinal cord straight.
- ✓ Make small notes on formula, figures and other important points for brief revision.
- ✓ A balanced diet will boost energy.
- ✓ Sleep well, especially on the night before the exam.
